Item for the Daily Log - 30 March 1953

25X1A

Discussed further with the Office of Communications possible amendments to the Communications Act of 1934 to permit reciprocity between foreign governments and the United States with respect to authorization for radio stations. [REDACTED]

25X1A

[REDACTED] have discussed such proposals informally with the Department of State. It was agreed that COMMO would begin drafting a staff study on this subject with the view of having the DCI request appropriate action from the Department of State whereby interpretation of the present Act would permit such reciprocity or by supporting proper legislation.
